BIBLE RECORDS

Title page of "Betsy Ross" Bible, (photolithograph.) Presented to The Bucks County Historical Society through the kindness of Mr. Lloyd Ballerston, Jr., by Oliver Randolph Parry, New Hope (Coryells Ferry), Bucks County, Pa., Jan. 19th, 1909. This Bible was "printed at the Press in Worcester, Massachusetts, by Isaiah Thomas", 1791. At the top of the title page is the following inscription, apparently written many years ago: "The Legacy of Sarah Hallowell to her Niece, Eliz. Claypoole". A recent inscription at the bottom of the page is: "This Bible is now (1908) in possession of Anne Balderston, Colora, Md." On the back of the page is a small engraving on copper, an oval scroll enclosing the following: "The Property of Elizth Claypoole May 1st 1794."

Accompanying the reproduction of the title page are a photograph of the fly leaf of the same Bible and a photolithograph of a page containing the Family Record.

The photograph of the fly leaf bears the same presentation acknowledgment as that on the photolithograph of the title page. The inscriptions on the fly leaf, in beautiful old-style handwriting, follow:

"Memorandum; That I JAMES CLAYPOOLE of London and HELENA MERCES, were joined in marriage the 12th day of the 12th month 1657/8 at Bremen in Germany by Conradus Zelnisa a Calvinist Minister. -----We set sail from Gravesend the 25 day of the 5th month 1683 and arrived at Philadelphia in Pennsylvania the 8th day of the 8th month 1683, we came in the ship called the Concord. Captain Jeffrys commander.-----"

"JAMES CLAYPOOLE departed this life the 6th day of the 6th month 1687 and was buried in friends burial place at Philadelphia. HELENA CLAYPOOLE the 13th of the -- month 1688 and buried in friends burial place at Philadelphia,

Mulberry Street.

"WILLIAM CLAYPOOLE, Grandson of the above James, was born in Philadelphia in the year 1711, and was buried in friends burial place in said city Feby 1779 Elizth his wife born in Philde, October 14 1718 /& died May 3 1805 and buried in Christ Church burying ground/ (The words between the diagonals are in a different handwriting.)

"JOHN CLAYPOOLE, Son of the above named William and Elizabeth, was born August 15th 1752 in Mount holly State of Jersey, for his offspring see page 1015 of this book."

The photolithograph of "Family Record from Betsy Ross Bible" has at the top of the page a similar presentation acknowledgment to Oliver Rendolph Parry as the other two pages contain. The heading, "Family RECORD of MARRIAGE, and BIRTHS of Children," is printed. The marriage record of John Claypoole and Elizabeth Ashburn is partly printed and partly written in ink. The rest of the page is wholly written in ink. The record, quoted literally, follows:

JOHN CLAYPOOLE son of William & Elizabeth Claypoole of Philadelphia, was married to Elizabeth Ashburn widow of Joseph daughter of Samuel & Rebecca Griscom of Philadelphia on the Eighth day of May, in the year 1783. The Time of the Births of their Children, and their Names are as follow, viz.
